

Our Dead.

Myrtle Irene Calvert died June 10th at North Liberty, Ohio, aged 18 years, 19 months and 8 days. Her remains were brought by her parents and one sister back to Warsaw, Ind., for interment. They reached Warsaw, Tuesday June 12th 5:31 P. M. Funeral and interment Wednesday 2 P. M. Services by the pastor and Bro. Rensch of Milford.

Sister Myrtle was received into the Brethren church, April, 1892 by Bro. L. W. Ditch. Since she has lived a happy Christian life. She was a willing worker in the church and gave promise of many good works. In her death, she was resigned and said, "I am going to heaven. Tell all my young friends I would like to see them and that they meet in heaven."

She had a strong desire for a higher education and had succeeded in completing the High School course of Warsaw within a few weeks of her death, yet she was graduated with twelve others May 25. Her class acted as pall bearers at her burial.

She was a member of the young ladies' Chrysanthemum Reading Club of Warsaw. The club was out in a body and gave their burial service.

She was also a member of the King's Children and had been their first vice-president. She will be missed by many but "to be with Christ is far better."

W. C. PERRY, PASTOR.

IN MEMORY OF MY SISTER.

DEAR EVANGELIST:—Feeling sad and lonely this after-noon, I will write a few lines for your columns. We have been passing through the valley of afflictions. After many weeks and months of severe suffering, our dear sister Lydia was called to her long home May 31st. Yes the band of Mowl sisters is now broken. Lydia is the first one called, which one will be next? Lydia had many friends, no one knew her but to love her, and though a sufferer for years she was always cheerful, and patient. She, with her sister Annie, was baptized by Bro. W. W. Summers. And united with the Brethren church at North Manchester, on the first day of November 1885. She was a faithful worker in the service of her Master. And many were the earnest prayers offered at the throne of grace in behalf of her class of boys in the S. S. at Manchester. And I would say to those same boys prepare to meet your teacher in heaven, although loving you and all her friends, she was ready and anxious to go to her Savior. Only an hour before she fell asleep, she said to Sister Mary (who had been her faithful attendant for many weeks) "I am almost there," and ask her to repeat the fourth verse of the 22nd chapter of Rev., "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away." This verse was the text of the funeral discourse preached by Rev. Stahl to large audience of friends. Her remains were laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Macedonia, Iowa, there to await the resurrection morn.

A GOOD MAN HAS FALLEN.

I feel like adding a tribute to the memory of Bro. Joseph B. Moser who recently crossed the mystic stream, as we believe to the evergreen shore.

My acquaintance with Bro. Moser and his family dates back to about 1856. And our friendship remained unbroken to the last. He was a man of sterling integrity, of strong convictions that were not easily shaken, a matter of fact man, who contended for what he believed to be right whoever might be against him. He was one of the first in the church who vigorously protested against the arbitrary rulings of the annual meeting and was an early advocate for the reconstruction of the church upon a more liberal basis.

His home was in Fayette Co., Pa., four miles S. E. of Uniontown, where he was born, lived and died. His home for many years was the Brethren home, many, yes, very many times did I enjoy his hospitality—he did much for the cause of his Master, whom he served with untiring fidelity. We feel that we have lost a personal friend, as well as a Christian brother, and the family no doubt feel the weight of their loss. We sympathize with them in this their hour of bereavement, and feel more than ever the blessedness of the hope we entertain of meeting one another again. Of Bro. Moser it can truthfully be said

"Servant of God well done;

Rest from thy loved employ:

The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy.

The pains of death are past,

Labor and sorrow cease;

And life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,

When the day of life is fled,

Then in heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tear is shed."

THE GOSPEL HAMMER - AND - HIGHWAY GRADER.

By S. H. BASHOR.

IN CLOTH, postpaid, 20c.

The author says in his preface: "So many books have been written about Christ, telling people to come to Christ, yet failing to give a tangible idea of how Christ is to be found. We thought of letting this work fill that place: Tell people of Christ, when to seek for salvation and how to obtain it." We think the little work meets the want very well.
